

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE AND BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

Scottish Power Renewables Legal Director and Company Secretary

Personal profile and academic training

Andrew holds a Law Degree with Honours and a Diploma in Legal Practice from the University of Aberdeen.

Andrew is dual qualified in Scotland (2003) and in England and Wales (2006) and is a Notary Public.

Andrew is accredited by The Law Society of Scotland as a specialist in Construction Law.

Noteworthy experience in the energy and industrial engineering sector

Andrew trained with Shepherd and Wedderburn and thereafter worked with the firm in its Construction and Engineering team from 2003 until 2012. He specialised in all aspects of construction and engineering projects including renewable energy, conventional power, district heating and waste water/waste treatment. Andrew advised on both contract law and disputes and was recognised in 2012 as a specialist in Construction Law by The Law Society of Scotland.

In 2012 he joined ScottishPower Renewables as a solicitor focussing primarily on the construction delivery of SPR's onshore and offshore portfolios and asset management for the operational fleet.

In 2014 Andrew became Legal Director for the ScottishPower Renewables business. In this role, Andrew is responsible for the delivery of all legal services required by the Renewables business in relation to both its UK onshore and worldwide offshore businesses, which include a number of joint ventures. Andrew also acts as Company Secretary for the companies in the ScottishPower Renewables group ensuring compliance at all times with the Iberdrola Corporate Governance System.

Noteworthy experience in other industries

In private practice Andrew advised individuals, public bodies and private businesses on a wide range of construction projects in the housing, hotels/leisure, offices, schools, further education and transport sectors.

Other information

Andrew enjoys travelling, rugby and spending time with his young family.