

Windfarm Habitat Management Areas Being Implemented

Site	HMA Area	Key elements / species
Beinn an Tuirc, Kintyre, Argyll	1670 hectares	Moorland habitat has been re-established after removal of 450 ha of forestry. Enhancement of area for Golden Eagles and Red and Black Grouse.
Beinn Tharsuinn, The Scottish Highlands	140 hectares	Planting of 30,000 deciduous trees to regenerate native woodland and upland habitat to enhance the landscape character and improve conditions for Black Grouse, Capercaillie and Hen Harrier. Existing blanket bog and grassland to be managed for upland birds.
Black Law, Lanarkshire	1,440 hectares	Removal of 400 hectares of forestry and restoration of opencast coal mine. Regeneration of Blanket Bog to enhance conditions for wading birds and farmland passerines. Enhancement of river for water voles and otters.
Cruach Mhor, Cowal, Argyll	577 hectares	Removal of 386 hectares of forestry and management of moor to create feeding conditions for Hen Harrier, Short-eared Owl, Black Grouse
Dun Law Extension, Midlothian	8.4 hectares	Enhancement of area for Black Grouse and Merlin by blanket bog restoration and native tree planting.
Greenknowes, Perthshire	20 hectares	Restoration of native woodland and enhancement of the area for Black Grouse population.
Hagshaw Hill Extension, Lanarkshire	12.2 hectares	Enhancement of area for Black Grouse

Mark Hill	Blanket Bog restoration, Red squirrels, riparian habitat enhancement and enhancement of habitat for amphibians and reptiles.	Carland cross	Management of nationally rare Dorset Heath, and monitoring of badgers, bats and dormice.
-----------	--	---------------	--

Wether Hill	2 hectares	Enhancement of area for Black Grouse
Whitelee, South of Glasgow	2547 hectares	Removal of 900 hectares of non-native forestry to promote blanket bog and moorland regeneration. Improving conditions for Black Grouse, Red grouse, wading birds and upland wildlife.

Windfarm sites for future development of Habitat Management Areas

Harestanes	Enhancement of area for bats, otters, red squirrels and Goshawk.	Lynemouth	Enhancement of area for Geese, Wild Swans and Barn Owl.
Beinn an Tuirc Extension	Habitat enhancement for Hen Harrier and Black Grouse.		