					mountings. Formerly accessed by a 'U' plan trench and enclosed by a square barbed wire enclosure.
91	MXS19227		BEACH DEFENCE, TRENCH, EMBLACEMENT	Modern	World War II strongpoint, Bawdsey. A number of trenches are visible in 1940 along with a stretch of barbed wire obstruction. By 1945 a strongpoint is evident, three side of the enclosure being barbed wire whilst the eastern side is part of the stretch of beach scaffolding. The barbed wire has been removed by July 1948, however a hexagonal pillbox is visible this may have been camouflaged during the war.	635543	239632
92	MSF21388		MILITARY FEATURE	Modern	Group of large concrete blocks at mid tide level. Possibly anti-tank blocks although much larger than normal - 2m square. Associated with wooden groynes, possible sea defence.	635542	239507
93	MSF21389		FEATURE	Undated	Section of cliff face exposed - silt/muds and shingle visible.	635509	239568
94	MXS19226		PILLBOX, EMBLACEMENT,	Modern	A military strongpoint of World War II date, it can be seen on aerial photographs from 1945. It consists of a hexagonal pillbox, located on the cliff edge with a length of barbed wire obstruction enclosing its western side. Type 22 pillbox.	635415	239510
95	MXS19222		PILLBOX, BEACH DEFENCE	Modern	World War II pillbox and beach scaffolding, Bawdsey A circular pillbox of World War II date can be seen in aerial photographs in a small patch of woodland on the cliff edge at Bawdsey. A short stretch of beach scaffolding can be seen below, at the base of cliff, protecting the pillbox from attack from the beach.	635312	239361
96	MSF23943		PILLBOX	Modern	WWI pillbox at Bawdey Hall, in fair condition.	635303	239368
97	MXS19221		SLIT TRENCH, MINEFIELD	Modern	Infantry strongpoint, consisting of a complex of slit trenches, contained within a hollow square plan minefield.	635245	239537

WA No.	HER No.	Associated event	Monument Type	Period	Description	Easting	Northing
98	MSF26081		PILLBOX	Modern	Combined type 22 and type 23 pillbox. Rear section consists of an open anti-aircraft light machine gun emplacement.	635079	239110
99	MSF12259		ARTEFACT SCATTER	Medieval	13th-14th century pottery scatter found fieldwalking.	635075	239105
100	MXS19336		SPIGOT MORTAR EMPLACEMENT, SLIT TRENCH,	Modern	World War II military features, Bawdsey. A number of World War II military features, constructed at some time before July 1940, are visible on aerial photographs, including a number of slit trenches, and a single gun emplacement, possibly a Spigot Mortar emplacement. Later buildings may relate to the construction of the 'diver' battery.	635050	239084
101	MSF12282		FINDSPOT	Prehistoric	Flint flake.	635005	239025
102	MXS19224		BARBED WIRE OBSTRUCTION, EARTHWORK, EMPLACEMENT	Modern	World War II military feature, Bawdsey. A military feature of World War II date, can be seen on photographs from 1945. It consists of a stretch of barbed wire and short ditches in the corner of the field and at the opposite side of the road is a circular earthwork feature, which could possibly be a single gun emplacement. Possible road block.	635002	239928
103	MXS19225		DIVER BATTERY, NISSEN HUT,	Modern	World War II Heavy Anti-aircraft Artillery battery, Bawdsey. Constructed at this location at some point between July 1944 and October 1945. It consisted of four gun emplacements with a substantial number of ancillary buildings, most of which appear to be Nissen huts.	634988	239198
104	MXS19223		BOMB CRATER	Modern	World War II bomb craters, Bawdsey. Three possible bomb craters can be seen on photographs taken in 1940.	634912	239102

Event no.	Name	Description	Easting	Northing
ESF18754	All Saints Church, Little Bealings	Monitoring in advance of building work revealed no archaeological evidence	622909	248002

Event no.	Name	Description	Easting	Northing
ESF18975	Monitoring of water main renewal, Kirton	Monitoring of water main renewal - results suggested no major archaeological deposits existed directly along the route of the pipeline although area immediately east of the medieval church was backfilled before monitoring could take place. A general background scatter of finds was seen.	629510	239015
ESF18747	Seckford Golf Club	Monitoring of footings revealed no archaeological evidence.	625121	248409
ESF18865	Evaluation - Manor Farm, Kirton	Series of test pits revealed 2 probable modern features. Nothing of antiquity was revealed, despite the site forming the possible location of lost Domesday Hamlet of Strewston.	627704	240031
ESF18941	Watching brief - Sandwood, Dukes Park, Woodbridge	Watching brief on small extension to NE side of building. Trench fully excavated no visible features or finds.	625863	248112
ESF18930	Monitoring of footings for new house.	No features or finds, good visibility. Nothing in spoil either.	627430	242636
ESF18963	Watching Brief - The Old Vicarge	Watching brief on new 3-bay cart lodge. Scatter of 18-19 century brick/tile frags and one sherd Thetford type ware and one sherd med courseware. No features seen.	621773	248023
