

LINDSAY McQUADE

(Glasgow, 1976)

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE AND BIOGRAPHICAL DATA

Chief Executive Officer, ScottishPower Renewable Energy Limited

Type: non-independent, executive

Date of Appointment: 17 July 2018

Current professional activities and positions

Lindsay was appointed Chief Executive Officer of the Company in 2018.

Lindsay sits on the Boards of a number of industry bodies and is currently a director of RenewableUK and is the Chair of SafetyOn, the health and safety organisation of the onshore wind industry. She is also an Ambassador for Powerful Women.

Lindsay is also a director of ScottishPower Renewables (UK) Limited.

Professional and academic training

Lindsay completed a Bachelor of Arts (Hons) in Economics at the University of Strathclyde, Glasgow in 1997.

In 2004 she successfully completed the Association of Corporate Treasurer's AMCT qualification, focusing on accountancy, risk, financial analysis and corporate finance. She also attained the Certified Compliance & Ethics Professional-International (CCEP-I) qualification of the Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics in 2017.

Relevant experience for her role in the Company

Lindsay started her professional career at ScottishPower Renewables in 2006 holding a variety of roles.

She acted as Director of Policy & Innovation for ScottishPower Renewables from 2013, with responsibilities extending to energy policy, grid & regulation, aviation, as well as innovation, pertinent to the existing operations and future of ScottishPower Renewables. She also worked closely with the wider global regulatory function of Iberdrola. In parallel, she also held the role of Business Compliance Officer for ScottishPower Renewables from 2015 until 2018.

Prior to joining ScottishPower Renewables, Lindsay worked in other areas of ScottishPower, including Energy Retail Operations, Corporate Risk and Internal Audit. She has also previously worked for Clydesdale Bank, Stakis plc and British Energy.